Alaska Time 2021

ENGAGEMENT CALENDAR

EDITOR'S NOTE

If you are holding this little calendar in your hands, it is likely that you have a special fondness for Alaska. Perhaps you experienced Alaska's beauty and grandeur during a visit, maybe you lived here at one time, or, like me, you are one of the many that came years ago and never looked back. Alaska has enticed and entranced many with the allure of wilderness, wildlife, and the nuances of a unique and distinctive northern lifestyle.

Nature is a tonic for those with senses tuned to receive its many gifts, and it is my sincere hope that the pictures you find here kindle your appreciation for the natural world, your love for Alaska, and its wilderness riches. It is through our thoughtful stewardship that we can ensure that these wild places remain for many years to come, for our children, and their children to enjoy far into the future. To all of you throughout the world who continue to savor Alaska's splendor through this small publication, a warm and gracious thank you.

Sincerely,

Patrick J Endres

Alaska nature photography enthusiasts, please visit the Alaska Society of Outdoor and Nature Photographers (ASONP.org), an educational, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting public education, self-improvement, and ethics in outdoor and nature photography.

Greatland Graphics is an Alaska-owned company that features Alaskan artists and photographers. When you purchase our products, you support their creative endeavors. Each year we donate a portion of our income to not-for-profit organizations that support the future of Alaska's land and communities. Learn more at GreatlandGraphics.com.

Times and dates for full moons, solstices and equinoxes are adjusted to Alaska Time. This calendar was printed with plant-based inks on paper milled from trees harvested in accord with the Forest Stewardship Council™ (FSC) guidelines promoting responsible forest management.

A special thank you to the talented team of Alaska photographers who spend hours trekking Alaska's mountains and tundra in cold, rain, sunshine, and under the shimmering aurora-filled night skies to bring you nature's beauty from the "Greatland."

Art enables us to find ourselves and lose ourselves at the same time.

Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it.

The greatest danger for most of us
is not that our aim is too high
and we miss it,
but that it is too low
and we reach it.

Photography is a small voice, at best,
but sometimes one photograph,
or a group of them,
can lure our sense of awareness.
