— SHARING ALASKA WITH THE WORLD SINCE 1985 —

Award-Winning Calendars & Books ♦ Notecards ♦ Distinctive Alaska Art

2025 CATALOG

Proud to feature Alaskan artists, authors, and photographers

ALASKA PROUD

We are a small, Alaska owned and operated business that exclusively publishes Alaskan photographers, authors, and artists' work. When you purchase our products, you support them and their creative endeavors.

SUSTAINABLE

Our calendars are printed in Canada using renewable energy. Our cards are printed in Alaska. Both use paper milled from trees that meet responsible forest management guidelines.

RESPECT ALASKA

We love Alaska's big, wild and rugged spaces, the beautiful landscape, and abundant wildlife. We believe these natural treasures must remain for our children's children and generations that will follow.

PLANET FRIENDLY

There are literally tons of plastics strewn across Alaska's shores and beaches that will last hundreds of years; we are transitioning to certified compostable plastic packaging wherever possible.

GIVING BACK

We support the future of Alaska and its people, communities, and the land we all cherish. When you purchase our products, a portion of the proceeds will be donated to select Alaska non-profits.

ALASKA'S FINEST CALENDARS

ABOUT GREATLAND GRAPHICS

Established in 1985, Greatland Graphics was first a producer of fine Alaskan photographic calendars. Throughout its history, we have shown that we love Alaska's wild, rugged landscape, and the abundant wildlife that makes its lands and waters home. We want to share its natural beauty through quality printed products and distinctive Alaskan art. We exclusively publish and represent Alaskan residents' work, and when you purchase our products, you support local Alaskan artists, photographers, and authors. Our note cards and postcards are printed in Anchorage, while our books and calendars are printed in Canada using renewable resources and materials that promote responsible management of the world's forests. Our small veteran and woman-owned company takes pride in excellent customer service and high-quality products.

CONTRIBUTING PHOTOGRAPHERS

We can publish award-winning photography calendars because we draw upon the talent of some of Alaska's most prolific, accomplished, and talented photographers. Each year, Greatland Graphics sends out a call for submissions to over 70 photographers. From that call, we receive over 4,000 images that are narrowed down to the 90 or so photos that appear in our three wall calendars and our weekly engagement calendar. Our regular contributors include some top names in the Alaskan photographic community, such as Amy Johnson, Carl Johnson, Fred Hirschmann, Hugh Rose, John Hyde, Jennifer Smith, Milo Burcham, Ron Niebrugge, Ronn & Marketa Murray, Patrick Endres, Todd Salat, Tom Walker, and many more.

Shannon Cartwright

Shannon Cartwright expresses her love of Alaska through her numerous children's books. She uses a colorful and entertaining story style while teaching kids about Alaska, its land, people, and wildlife.

CHILDREN'S BOARD BOOKS

Shannon Cartwright's whimsical animal illustrations have now been used for four generations to teach children basic phonics, beginning math, and early reading. The child-proof board book style format is perfect for preschoolers. Parents and grandparents can get kids excited to learn long before formal education begins.

ROMEO The Story of an Alaskan Wolf

Photography & text by John Hyde

ROMEO is about a single black wolf that changed a community forever. Romeo had a playful and loving soul that residents of Juneau, Alaska, simply could not ignore. Orphaned and alone, Romeo chose his territory below the Mendenhall Glacier where he played with his cousins—the dogs that accompanied their owners as they traveled throughout his territory every winter.

AURORA SCARVES BY AMY J. JOHNSON

AURORA SCARVES

Elegant & Distinctive
IMPRINTED FROM ORIGINAL PHOTOGRAPHS

Our elegant aurora scarves are made in Canada from original Alaska aurora borealis photographs taken by Amy Johnson. They represent classic Alaska landscapes with the mystical aurora shimmering overhead.

The images are imprinted onto high-quality, soft, and supple color-fast, washable Poly Chiffon fabric that retains the beautiful colors. The hem is baby rolled and machine-finished.

Discriminating buyers looking for original wearable art by an Alaskan artist love these scarves. The imprints below are sold at wholesale exclusively through Greatland Graphics.

The large aurora scarf is long enough for a variety of head and neck scarf wrap styles.

AMY JOHNSON

PHOTOGRAPHER

Amy came to Alaska at the age of 18 in order to quench her thirst for adventure and experience wilderness on an intimate level. Her passion for photographing the aurora has led her across Alaska capturing stunning displays in the night sky. She says, "viewing and photographing the Aurora is a spiritual experience which heightens my sense of connection to this vast universe."
